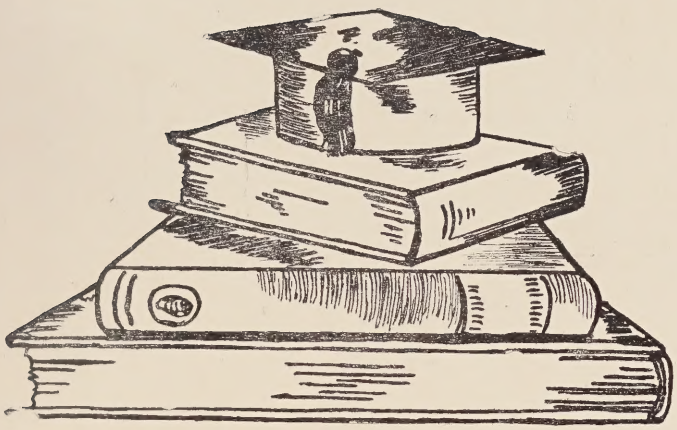
THE BARNACLE

1935



Published by the Senior Class

The Barnstable High School

To Katherine M. Nehubian

In appreciation of her never failing kindess, her personal interest in all members of the senior class, and her one desire for their success, we gratefully dedicate this second volume of "The Barnacle".

CLASS ODE

(Tune: "America, the Beautiful")

Oh, glorious for fondest thoughts, for all its cherished halls,
For evr'y hour of time we've spent within its hallowed walls.
Oh, Barnstable! Fair Barnstable! We left our prayers for thee
And sing thy praise through all the days, with voices glad and free.

Oh, glorious for learning taught, for all the wisdom there,
For all the happy days now past, encircled
by thy care,
Oh, Barnstable! Fair Barnstable! We raise thy name on high
For thy success, our happiness shall echo in the sky.

The engagement of Ruth Pelton of West Barnstable to a young man who comes from Boston was intimated here today. Miss Pelton, back in 1935, was known as class man-hater.

The Business Men's Convention was well attended when here in Hyannis. The Eagleston Inn was gayly decorated for the occasion and music, both classical and popular, was supplied by the Hyannis Ladies' Band, conducted by Rita Burke. Lydston Cady, who has been so successful as a criminal lawyer; Stanley Welch, William Ruska and Richard Whipple, prominent merchants, were among those active at the affair.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of '35 of the Barnstable High School, one possibly surpassing in intellectual merits and powers all classes up to this time, being sound in body and of good disposing mind (through the untiring efforts of our benevolent teachers) but calling to mind the uncertainty of this transitory life, not knowing how soon we may be called hence, and wishing to set things in order as there may be peace and good agreement among our friends, do therefore make this our last Will and Testament, hereby revoking, renouncing, frustrating, and making void all other and former wills whatsoever, and heretofore drawn up.

But "these are the times that try men's souls". We are in the midst of a world-wide economic disaster (commonly called depression), one that has depleted to such an extent our capital that it grieves us deeply to be obliged to bequeath such paltry gifts to those teachers who have slaved, endeavoring to fit us to pass from this hallowed realm of learning to the "wild and woolly" world ahead. However, may it be known that it is from the profound depths of our hearts, with our most gracious thoughts, and with due respect that we leave these bequests. We sincerely hope they will be received, small as they may be, with the same honest good will with which they were donated.

Further, we wish our funeral to be performed with due rites and fitting ceremonies (we wish no flowers) by the faculty, and would be ever grateful if our ashes would be scattered to the four winds before our High School, that forever more our cindery shadow might haunt the institution wherein we strove to absorb the knowledge and wisdom imparted so willingly and gratefully.

In closing may we implore the undergraduates, our successors in this fair school, to maintain the acme set by this class and those before, to cherish as fondly as we the memories abiding in its glad walls, to never once besmirch its name, and finally to strive as we have striven to achieve the goal that we have attained.

Henry Small bequeaths his three-day beard to Dexter Patterson.

Mildred Murray leaves her flair for clothes to Mary Dwyer.

"Jimmy" Cahill leaves his city talk (Dat's de guy) to "Pat" McGillen.

Lucille Brown wills her unrequited affection for a certain minister's son to a Junior girl (guess who?)

"Betty" McLaughlin bequeaths her pleasing character to Louise McPhee.

"Eddie" Thatcher wills his position as class comedian to Mr. Hodge, and "Bill" Liimantainen leaves his place as rival to Joe Penner to "Henry" Esterbrooks.

Isadore Crocker, Alma Jacobson, and Ruth Jones will their retiring ways, which are assets now and then as the girls know, to Betty Gilman.

"Joe" Fermino and Otis Luomala give away their secret for success in athletics to "Tommy" Coleman.

"Lulu" Maki bequeaths a couple of his "Suomalainen" words to Norman Drew so that he may hand them down to lower grades.

"Red" Drew leaves his chewed match to all those teachers who have asked him to get rid of it.

Football Captain George Tsiknas leaves his wishes for good luck to next year's captain John Lebel and his team.

Olive Marchant, Lydia Souza, and Mary McKeon will their ability to keep quiet to Elsa "Giggles" Anderson.

Ruth Michelson leaves one of her countless A's to Lillian Maki's collection.

"Bill" Hoffman bequeaths the hair tonic with which he keeps his silky hair so lustrous to "Gerry" Besse.

Peter Campbell leaves his sunny disposition to James Lewis.

Frances Caswell wills her sunny smile, which brings forth those schoolgirl dimples, to Miss Williams.

Maurice Rucker leaves his everlasing flow of questions to Miss O'Hara.

John Silva bequeaths his ability to talk long and loud about nothing to Louis Bowes.

"Bill" Ruska leaves his platinum locks to be used in one of Miss Buckler's plays.

"Buster" Sanford bequeaths his "way" with the lady teachers to any poor, struggling, under classman.

"Dick" Whipple wills his setting up exercises to "Alex" Sutherland, whereas "Andy" Hall bequeaths his Tarzan muscles to "Jimmy" Lewis.

"Tom" Corrigan and "Bill" Cotter will a book entitle "How to Become an Actor" to Freeman Smith.

"Bill" Drew and Rita Burke leave their rules for devoted companionship to Teresa Crowell and Roger Gott.

Sally Shuttleworth bequeaths her baby talk to the winner of the baby contest.

Lydston Cady bequeaths his interest in politics to his "kid" brother.

Isobel Brown leaves a copy of her "Hollywood" diet to Marjorie Smith, and Ruth Pelton wills her sylph-like figure to Gladys Sherburne.

Edna Sherburne bequeaths her seamstress' ability to Olympia Madeiros, while "Dinky" Lovell wills her love for sports to Marion Coggeshall.

"Nuggy" Williamson leaves his "harem" to Buddy Doudican.

Harry Cook and Walter Shuttleworth bequeath their tardy-slips to Paul Hurley.

Audrey Williams and Flora Eaton will their secretarial ability to Ellen Pelton.

Sally Waterman leaves a package of gum to Mr. Hodge.

Frank Stanley wills his innocence to Everett Hopkins.

Ethel Cahoon and Doris Eldredge leave a few of their original poems to be printed in future copies of the school paper.

Alcott Hallett leaves some of the wisdom that comes with age to Jack Loeseer.

Frances Bassett leaves her place at the lunch counter to Virginia Richmond.

Ruth Reed leaves "Don" Grauer her everlasting love and good wishes.

Janet Howland leaves the shoes in which she danced so many times to the delight of the school, to Melva Perin.

"Harry" Drew and Rose Syriala leave their class spirit to the Junior class.

Eunice Oliver bequeaths her speed in shorthand to Ellen Wiinikainen.

Daphne Whitney wills her fine alto voice to Betty Burlingame, while Ellen Salo bequeaths her soft, sweet voice to any and all loud voiced girls in the Junior class.

Robert Chase leaves his carpenter's ability to Norman Penniman.

Stanley Welch wills his Falmouth loves to Russell Rucker.

Philip Brackett leaves his diligence to Mr. Boody's 5th period study class.

We leave to Mr. Hodge all the amazing knowledge and startling information that we have furnished him from time to time on our various test papers.

To the Freshman class we leave any overlooked wads of gum that we may have left adhering to the underside of the library tables, assembly seats, or any likely or unlikely places.

We give and bequeath to our dear faculty, who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of the ages, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams.

To our successors we leave our places in the hearts and thoughts of our principal and teachers.

In witness, whereof, we, the seniors of the Barnstable High School, hereunto set our signatures in the presence of two witnesses as required by law, and solemnly swear that the above bequests are our free acts and deeds, being signed, sealed, and acknowledged, this day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1935

The class of 1935 was the second class to go through the new high school.

In our first year of junior high school we had no officers, but we had several organizations which had a large following, such as the Aviation Club. Then there were our interclass sports.

Our eighth year was very much the same, but we felt more acquainted with the students, teachers, and the building. We also won more of our interclass games during this year.

By the time we had reached our Freshman year we felt grown up. The high school, too, had experienced changes. A new athletic field was built and bleachers were donated to us. Mr. Bangs and Mr. Bearse, with the aid of gym classes, put them up. Trees and curbstones were placed around the building and driveway.

The high school education is the foundation of our careers. As Pope has said:

" 'Tis education forms the common mind,
Just as the twig is bent the trees's inclined."

With this fact in mind our group began its Sophomore year with eighty-eight members and the following officers: Walter Sanford, president; Daphne Whitney, vice president; Doris Eldridge, secretary; and Mildred Murray, treasurer.

We immediately chose Miss Williams as our Class Sponsor and began preparations for a Sophomore dance, our only social function of the year, which, although not a financial success, was an affair we all enjoyed.

In this year we had several outstanding athletes: Geraldine Lovell, Frances Bassett, Ruth Fay, Joseph Fermino, James Cahill, William Drew, Wilho Maki, George Tsiknas, William Liimatainen, and Otis Luomala.

While these athletes were fighting for the honor and glory of B. H. S., we had others doing their part for the school paper, "High Lights", and others who were entertaining on the stage. The actresses and actors of our class were Rita Burke, Frances Caswell, Joseph Hallett, and Thomas Corrigan, all of whom took part in the hit play of the Sophomore year, "In the Octagon", presented by the B. H. S. Dramatic Club.

There we were beginning our Junior year, almost as important as the seniors, but with no thought of graduation day near at hand to incite a pensive feeling.

With Mr. Bangs as our class sponsor and Sarah Waterman as president; John Silva as vice president; Janet Howland as secretary; and Mildred Murray as treasurer, we began our Junior activities.

Under Mr. Bangs' direction and guidance we gave a play and entertained the Seniors at our Junior Prom, one of the year's outstanding functions. These two events netted us about one hundred dollars.

At the close of the various athletic seasons, these captains for 1935 were chosen: George Tsiknas, football; Carl Drew, basketball; William Drew, baseball; and Wilho Maki, track.

Upon the completion of this year two of our members left us: Bradford Tallman, who took a position with Mr. H. M. Meserve as service man; and Joseph Hallett, who began work with his father.

Realizing the responsibilities of the Senior year we immediately settled down to work. Miss Nehubian was chosen as our class sponsor; Sarah Waterman, president; John Silva, vice president; Audrey Williams, secretary; and Peter Campbell, treasurer. We selected "Finished Yet Beginning" for our class motto; the forget-me-not for our flower; and blue and white as our colors. At a special class meeting we elected our ring committee and our year book staff: Joseph Fermino, editor-in-chief; Ellen Salo, assistant editor. The advertising committee, who set out at once to secure advertisements, were very successful. As the year book necessitated general class meetings, so did other details which go with a senior year.

The Minstrel Show given by our Senior class on February 16 was a huge success and we took in $450.50, twice the amount made last year.

At a special class meeting we chose the individuals who wrote our last documents: Ethel Cahoon and Joseph Fermino, who prophesied our future;

Ellen Salo and Peter Campbell for the class will; William Cotter, who wrote this, our class history. At one other meeting Mr. Knight informed us that the long-coveted Class Day would be held on June 14; the Banquet on June 13; and graduation exercises on June 18. And now with the anxiety of a child awaiting the approach of Christmas, we wait with even greater excitement the day when we shall be graduated from high school to take our places in the world. We, the Class of 1935, salute you before taking our positions in the ranks of life, hoping to accomplish many great things.

William Cotter.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The outstanding Dramatic Club event of the year was the presentation of "Huckleberry Finn." This play was produced on April 26 under the auspices of the Parent Teachers Association for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund. The play was very ably coached by Mr. Milk and Freeman Smith deserves credit for his performance in the leading role. The other members of the cast were Thomas Corrigan, Harriett Scudder, William Williams, Audrey Williams, Rita Corrigan, Barbara Bearse, Gladys Hamblin, Louise Lebel, and Kenneth Esterbrooks. They all deserve great credit for a splendid performance.

In the fall term the Dramatic Club in conjunction with the tenth grade music classes produced the operetta, "Ask the Professor." They also presented a one-act play at Christmas time.

Although the Club has not been very active, the members have shown a good deal of interest and the prospects are very good for another successful season next year.

First Row: Gerard Besse, Harriett Scudder, Peter Campbell, Walter Sanford.

BARNSTABLE HIGH SCHOOL BAND

1934-1935

Our band this year became "entirely new" in personnel, that is, not one of the original twenty charter members of 1930 is left. The membership is now thirty-two pieces. The band has been very active this year, playing for more games, assemblies, and concerts than ever before. Also, the bass section is now reinforced by the addition of a Sousaphone. Near the close of year, new uniforms were purchased for the band. These uniforms, the cape style in snappy red and white, the Barnstable High School colors, were tailored by L. Dranetz & Company and will be talked of for many a day.

Drum Major: Eleanor Corrigan, 1938.

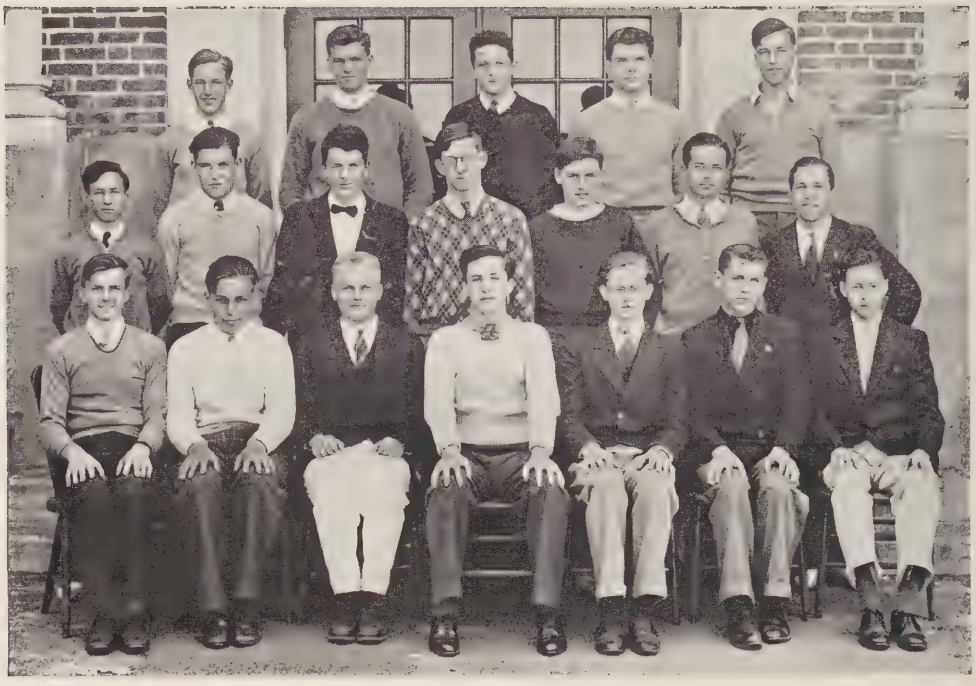
Student Leader: Roger Gott, 1936.

BARNSTABLE HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

1934-1935

The largest school orchestra on the Cape and one of the largest in the state is the Barnstable High School Orchestra of sixty pieces. This year the orchestra has appeared in concert and furnished music for many public events and school affairs. Eight of our players represented us in the All New England High School Orchestra of 250 players in Lowell. The entire orchestra has become the mainstay of the Cape Cod Symphony program this year.

Concertmaster: KENNETH ESTERBROOKS, 1936.



BOYS' GLEE CLUB

GLEE CLUB

1935

This year our vocal music program has been extended to Grade 12, resulting in the forming of this Glee Club, composed of Juniors and Seniors, which will provide music for graduation exercises. The club has had a very enjoyable, though short season. The officers are:

President: Lillian Maki, 1936.
Vice President: Audrey Williams, 1935.
Secretary: Jean Crocker, 1936.

COACHES

Vernon B. Bearse, Jesse A. Taft, Katherine M. Nehubian, Briah K. Connor, William P. Bangs

FOOTBALL

Both Coach Bangs and the players on the Barnstable High School football squad deserve all the praise that can possibly be given for the splendid record they established in the season of 1934. The team won all of its games but two, losing to New Bedford and tying Whitman. The team was easily the best of the Cape, defeating without much difficulty the squads representing the other Cape schools.

Captain Tsiknas at end proved himself an able leader and his loss will be keenly felt. The team was essentially made up of seniors, most of whom were experienced.

Many on the team were picked on the All-Cape Team at the close of the season, thereby rewarding them for their yeomen service to Barnstable High School.

Captain Tsiknas at end; Rodin, Fermino, Maki, Sanford, Shuttleworth, and Rucker in the line; and "Red" Drew, Liimatinen, Small, and Cahill in the backfield were all seniors who saw regular duty and became possessors of the coveted "B's."

Despite the fact that the majority of this year's football team will be lost through graduation, next year's team under the leadership of Captain elect Lebel with Mr. Bangs' able assistance, should be able to give a good account of itself.

GIRLS' HOCKEY

Out of a large group of girls that reported for hockey in the fall of 1934, eleven were chosen to represent the squad. Geraldine Lovell, captain, Flora Eaton, Anne McKeon, Marion Coggeshall, and Dorothy Johnson were the only "regulars" left from last season's team. The team won two games, lost one, and tied two.

We hope that next year's team will have a greater number of victories and our best wishes go to Miss Nehubian, our coach, and Marion Coggeshall, our captain for 1935's hockey team.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

First Row: Milton Halberstadt, Otis Luomala, Everett Hopkins, Maurice Rucker, Wilho Maki, Donald Grauer, Gerard Besse, Joe Fermino, Vernon Bearse, Coach.

After the football season had become a matter of history, Coach Bearse and Captain "Red" Drew awakened interest in athletic circles by issuing a call for prospective members of Barnstable's basketball team. A large squad turned out and under the excellent tutelage of Coach Bearse the team was soon rounded into form. As in football the basketball team gave a good account of itself by winning all of its regular games except two, losing once to Provincetown and once to Dartmouth. The team did, however, in return games with these two aggregations, trounce them quite easily.

The first team was composed of all seniors with "Red" Drew, Otis Luomala, Jimmy Cahill, Wilho Maki, Joe Fermino, and Maurice Rucker as the members.

The second quintet in its scheduled games, being composed of Juniors and Sophomores, gave promise of developing into a smooth-passing, basket-getting five and should be able to carry on where this year's team left off.

Coach Bearse and both the first and second teams deserve great credit for the fine work they have done. Both the Coach and the boys worked hard to produce the excellent team that they did and we believe that Captain elect Norman Drew will be able to lead another fine team in the next basketball season.

BASKETBALL

A group of about fifty girls started basketball practice at the beginning of the season. Out of this number were chosen the first and second teams who played in most of the league games, although practically every girl on the squad was given an opportunity to play. The members of the first team were: Louise Lebel, captain, Anne McKeon, Marion Coggeshell, Marguerite Thatcher, Harriet Scudder, and Geraldine Lovell. All the members of this team were named in the "All-Scholastic Cape Girls' Basketball Team." The first team always gets the credit for winning the games, but this would be impossible if the other members of the squad were not efficient substitutes, for in some of the swift games our opponents were almost more than a match for us.

This year we were able to win most of our games by a score considerably larger than that of the opposing teams, Barnstable's total score being 228 to 147 for our opponents. At the end of the season we were happy to have kept up once more the tradition of the girls' team of Barnstable High School by winning the Cape Championship.

Besides the hard work of those playing, a great deal of credit is due our able coach, Miss Nehubian. Not only, under her direction did the first team do excellent work, but the members of the second team did well in the four games they played.

BASEBALL

With a near veteran nine wearing the red and white for Barnstable High School, the prospects for a very successful season were in view. In the first few games, at least, the team showed indications of developing into a slugging aggregation, and with good pitching should certainly hold its own in the Cape league. Coaches Bearse and Taft have worked hard with the large squad, retaining all the candidates in order to give them the experience needed when they later become first-stringers.

Seniors on the team were headed by Captain "Bill" Drew, stellar pitcher and infielder. Other seniors who played regularly were Wilho Maki, first baseman and outfielder; Otis Luomala, catcher and infielder; Frank Stanley, left fielder; and "Ed" Thacher, center fielder.

Juniors were also very important cogs on the team, with "Tom" Coleman playing second and catching; "Gerry" Besse playing third; and Angelo Panesis playing in the right field.

From the class of '36 was Francis MacEacheron, catcher.

TRACK

Fortified with a few veterans from last year, Coach Bangs started the season off with an impressive victory over the experienced Fairhaven track team. Showing an unexpected array of point winners, the team garnered many firsts, and from present indications Barnstable High School may well be proud of its track team.

The team, led by the silent Wilho Maki, is well balanced. Captain Maki is a veritable stronghold in the shot put and discus, bowling over opponents quite readily. "Bill" Liimatainen, "Dick" Whipple, and Maurice Rucker, all seniors, also perform well in these events.

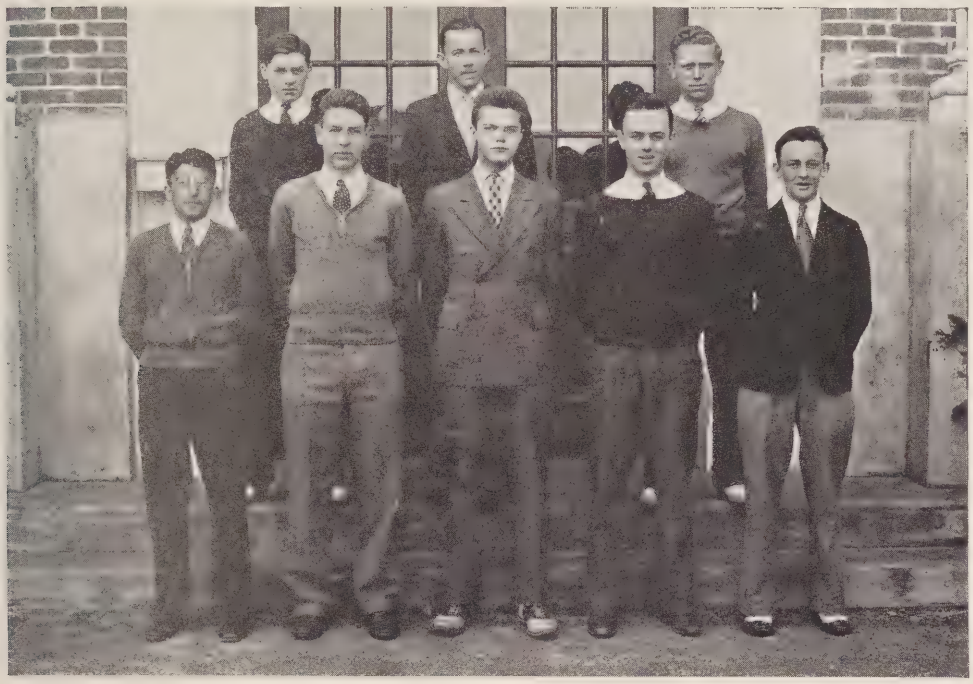
Liimatainen, however, is the star of the javelin throw, being closely followed by "Nuggy" Williamson, "Joe" Fermino, and Leroy Hopkins.

In the broad jump is found Otis Luomala, "Bill" Ruska, "Bill" Banks, Robert Weigert, and Leroy Hopkins.

The 100 yard dash produces "Bill" Ruska, Robert Weigert, George Stewart, all of whom also do very well in the 200 yard dash.

The quarter mile has "Bill" Hoffman, Fred Maki, Maurice Rucker, and "Bill" Banks as its participants, while the half mile event has "Dave" Greene, Fred Maki, Kalervo Sulkala, and Harold George as the consistent point-getters.

Oswald Ruska, Norman Williams, "Joe" Walsh, and Basil Bearse are the pole-vaulters; whereas "Dick" Whipple, George Tsiknas, Otis Luomala, and "Ted" Hinckley perform in the high jump.



GOLF

Inaugurating a brand new sport in the Barnstable High School, Golf Coach Bearse, has made a fine record. Although handicapped by the lack of experienced golfers, a very able team has been turned out, one able to hold its own in the Southeastern Massachusetts Golf League, defeating schools that have had golfing teams for years. Much credit is due to both the players and Coach Bearse.

Among those participating are Paul Hurley, "Don" Grauer, "Ed" Kneale, "Bill" Banks, and "Doc" Cabral, all members of the Junior class, and "Bill" Cotter, the only senior member of the team. Thus with this material, prospects are extremely bright for an extra good team next year, with the Junior golfers obtaining much invaluable experience this season. The Hyannisport Golf Club is to be thanked for their co-operation in allowing the team to practice and conduct their matches on its course.

TENNIS

First Row: Adlington Cady, William Ruska, Peter Campbell, Russell Starck, Milton Halberstadt, Donald Vail, Lydston Cady, George Wagoner.

Early in May, Coach Connor called out candidates for the tennis team, bringing back to Barnstable High School, a sport that has been lacking in interscholastic circles for quite a few years. A goodly number of aspirants turned out, all anxious to become members of the team.

At present the team is composed of Peter Campbell, Adlington Cady, Gerard Besse, and George Wagoner. This, however, is not necessarily a fixed and certain team, because there is a further group of boys headed by Lydston Cady, Everett Hopkins, and Milton Halberstadt among others, ready and eager to step in and take their positions on the team should any of the present members falter.

The team has played one match with Falmouth, and although defeated, gained much needed experience. It is hoped they will go on to take the remaining matches. In view of the fact that the team is inexperienced and has no veterans among its members returning from Barnstable High tennis campaigns, too much should not be expected, as this year is, in fact, only a starter for the fine tennis teams destined to wear Barnstable's colors while furthering her sport achievements.
